POLITICAL NOTES.

—The Republican comferees of Centre, Juniata, Mifflin and Huntingdon counties met at Tyrone and elected Dr. Dinwiddie, of Huntingdon, Senatorial delegate to the State Convention—without instructions.

—The Democracy of Ohio are becoming mad on departures, returns, and determination to stay. Poor old Democracy! how pitiful is its condition in all parts of the land.

—A Scathing sarcasm is pronunced by the Cincinnati Times when it says that, politically speaking, it is as bad to be a fool as a knave; and if General Butler attempts any further defense of the salary steal, people will begin to think he is both.

—The Democracy are crowing lustily over their victory in Kentucky, where an election was held on Monday for State Treasurer and members of the Legislature. When Kentucky held out in favor of the dissolution of the Union and rebellion the Democracy were also jubulant.

—The President in his interview with Col Hughes, Representative Platt and Messrs. Chandler and Carter, assured Col. Hughes of his warm sympathy, and hoped he would be successful in the approaching Gubernatorial election in Virginia. He expressed his willingness to do all in his power consistant with his position to aid Col. Hughes and the Republican cause in that State.

—Further returns of the late Kentucky election indicate Evans, Republican candidate for Senate, has a majority in Hopkinsville city and county stated at about 550. Parker, Republican candidate for the Legislature, will have a majority of six hundred. The Republican vote in every precinct shows an increase, while the Democrats fall short. There appeared to be no interest manifested by the Democratic party, many having refused to go to the polls. The Republican vote is the largest ever cast in the county.

—William Allen, just nominated by the Democracy of Ohio, as their candidate for Governor, is a fair representative of the old dough-face order, and comes within the range where poor Vallandigham fretted himself so terribly during the slave-holder's rebellion. Allen represented Ohio in the U. S. Senate, when the crack of the slave-master's lash ruled as potently then as ever it did on the plantation, and no man obeyed it more servilely than he. Talk of Democratic departures, after such a nomination!

—Adams county being free from debt, the Age proudly says: "Adams is a Democratic county, and its finances have been managed by Democrats." There is a county adjoining Adams called York, which gives Democratic majorities of from two to four thousand. Its finances have been managed by Democrats, and its debt is fully $300,000. A great part of this, too, was contracted by the grossest frauds. There has been no more corrupt ring in New York than the Democratic ring in York county, which even resorted to the Tammany crime of stealing and destroying vouchers to hide its rascality.

—The Ohio Democrats were not mindful of the commandment which declares "thou shalt not bear false witness." Their platform denounces "the conduct of President Grant in using the influence of his high position" to procure the passage of the back-pay and increased-pay bill. No such charge has ever before been made against the President, and not even the most reckless of Washington City calumnators has dared to lay that to his charge. He signed the bill solely because it was an appropriation bill, necessary to the continued existence of the government, and because his failure to sign it would have rendered a special session of Congress necessary: but he never expressed a desire for its passage, nor did he use one particle of influence in its behalf. These facts are generally conceded; and the Ohio Democracy might have found something better to say and do than to begin their campaign with a brazen lie imprinted on their banners. For all the good the lie will do them, one might be prompted, if Greeley were not dead, to ask, in the nervous language he employed occasionally, "what is the use of lying anyhow?"

SOCIETY MEETINGS.

—The forgemen of Valentine & Co. weekly assemble in the arcade for secret deliberations. They have formed themselves into a benevolent organization for the protection of needy forgemen. It is purely benevolent in its objects, and they encourage nothing like strikes. They are well paid and consequently contented. —Watchman

It is with pleasure that we insert the paragraph taken from last weeks Watchman. We are glad to learn that such associations and meetings are organized and held by the mechanics and laboringmen of Centre County. Such meetings in themselves are innocent and productive of good. By uniting in counsil and by proper comparsion of views, laboring men and mechanics can do much to promote their own and their children's good. Every other business has its organized society and why should not the laboring men and mechanics have theirs. They certainly should, and they should be equally protected in their rights.

But why laboring men and mechanics are forbidden by law to form such associations or societies in Centre County we are at a loss to know, and yet such is the case. Such meetings are unlawful in Centre County owing to the fact that the laboring man and mechanic, have been most shamefully misrepresented by the late member of the Legislature from Centre County, and that member is the editor of the Watchman.

On the 8th of May, 1869, when Mr. Meek represented this County in the Legislature of Pennsylvania, the following act of assembly was passed and approved. Let every laboring man and mechanic read it. Here it is!

"It shall be lawful for any and all classes of mechanics, journey men, trades men and laborers to form societies and associations for their mutual benefit and protection and peaceably to meet, discuss and establish all necessary by-laws, rules and regulations to carry out the same; all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are here by repealed. Provided the provisions of this act shall not apply to the counties of Clearfield and Centre." See Pamph. laws 1869, Page 1860.

This act Mr. Meek voted for and supported by his influence, and he and Bill Wallace succeeded in preventing Clearfield and Centre Counties from receiving the benefit of such a wise law.

Over the whole state laboring men and mechanics may meet in such societies for their own protection except in Clearfield and Centre Counties.

What hostility Meek had to the laboring men and mechanics meeting in Centre County in such societies we do not know, but such hostility he had that in the county he represented, it was to be made unlawful. These very laboring men who hold their meetings in the Arcade are meeting there in defiance of Meek's Law.

Our advice to them is to go on and hold their meetings, and if Mr. Meek undertakes to suppress these societies in Centre County he will find such a storm of indignation against him that he will forever regret that he lent himself to the perpetration of such a fraud upon the honest laboring man.

This man Mr. Meek is seeking senatorial honors, and desires to represent these same laboring men and mechanics in the Senate of Pennsylvania. Why does he not come forward and defend his cource as a member of the house for four years? Why does he not take up the acts, private and public, that he has passed, and show his constituents what he has done for them? Why does he avoid discussing them; when his attention has been called again and again to his course as a legislator, and to acts and things in that course that needed explanation? Why has he turned away from it by personal abuse of any one whom he may suspect, and with one or two scurillous, cowardly flings he abandons it all and never once thinks that it is the right of the public to know, and his duty to explain.

The truth is there is much of it he cannot, dare not, and never will explain. It is his desire to conceal all this infamous legislation. It is wise policy in him to resort to scandal and scurillity rather than to be honest and tell the people what he did in the Legislature, and of course we may expect in the future what we have witnessed in the past.

If Mr. Meek will enter into investigation we will take up in succession is private acts for Centre County, and show the iniquity thereof and give him an opportunity to reply. But in such an investigation he must admit the truth.

But we are afraid he will not do this if there is a dastard way of getting out of it like getting a nomination. If upon the other hand he will not investigate with us his record as a politician and member of the Legislature, will he furnish us with a certificate from the leading members of the Democratic Party that his course as a member of Legislature has been approved by them. That there is a political purity and honesty connected with that record:

If he will furnssh us with a cetificate to this effect by such men as Hon. G. T. Shugert, Hon. John H Orvis, Adam Hoy, Esq., Judge Hosterman, Samuel Gilliland, C. T. Alexander, Gen. W. A. Blair, Hon. Frederick Kurtz, Hon. Jacob G. Meyrs or any four of them it will releive his record from the heavy load that is bearing it down.

We will accept testimony from such men as we have above mentioned because we know them to be honest, and as such have been the recognized leaders of the Democratic Party in this county for many years. We know more over that they will not stoop to do a mean thing, and if the certificate be in their own proper handwriting we will attach great weight to it.

In conclusion we say that we do not want Mr. Meek any longer to shirk the responsibility of an investigation. We want him to come out in a manly way and meet facts with facts. We demand that an investigation be had into his course as a legislator, that the people of this County may know what laws were enacted during the time he represented them, and who is responsible for many of the infamous local laws which are a curse to this and surrounding counties. Mr Meek cannot claim that he has not the time or means that would enable him to let his constituents know what he has done or what he has not done.

As to means, he got five hundred dollars back pay as a member in 1871 which he voted into his own pocket, and which he says constituted the infamy of the act in Sherwood but which in his own case, he says, was highly honorable; nevertheless he took good care to conceal it from the voters of Centre County, until by chance it eked out. We think he has never earned this extra pay or steal of five hundred dollars, and as he has never offered to pay it back, he ought to be willing to enlighten his constituency upon his record, and as to time he has had nothing to do but to electioneer for office during the short interval, that he was out of office, and as he harps so much and so loud about the reserved rights of the people. it is his duty to stop electioneering for a day and tell the people why he is so exceedingly anxious to go back to the Legislature, that source of wealth and disgrace to so many people.

Should he fail to do either one or the other of these things proposed, we are of the opinion that the people in exercise of their reserved rights will rise up and select some other representative, who can upon his return to them after the adjourment of the Legislature say, see, here is my record as your representative, and I spread it out before you, I conceal nothing.

THE back pay swindle is not profitable in the long run as Ben. Butler of Massachusetts will yet learn to his sorrow. The old Bay State is very strong in the Republican faith, and although Ben claims to be, and has been in the past, a leading Republican, he will find that the way to obtain republican votes is to stand by the right. The movement against him is gathering immense force, and is composed of the best men in all the towns of that state. We hope and trust that back-pay Ben is destined to get a back seat in the politics of Massachusetts from which he will not be allowed to rise until he is carried to his grave. Are there not some men in our own State who ought to be made to know that stealing will not be countenanced by the people? Remember them when election day comes.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

[Correspondence of the REPUBLICAN.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 9, 1873.

COUNTERFEITING GOLD COIN.—LOSS FROM RECOINAGE.

Rumors have recently been set afloat that the counterfeiters have been more than usually successful in imitating the new five-dollar coin, and also that the Treasury has experienced an unexpectedly large loss in the process of recoining now in progress, but information received from official sources contradicts these statements. The fact is that all our gold coins are counterfeited, the new one no more successfully than the rest. It is well known that counterfeiters are the most skillful workman in the world, and some of their work in "filling" coins is simply marvelous. But perhaps the reader does not know what "filling" is. The process is a most delicate one and consists in removing the middle edge of the coin after which the operator slices the coin in two and excavates the interior, leaving the faces untouched. The space is filled with a composition of platina of precisely the the same weight as the material removed and the coin put together again in such a manner that only an expert would know the difference. The thus manipulated coin has the proper weight and the ring of true metal; no acid test affects it and no trace of the work can be detected by the closest inspection. The profit from "filling" one double eagle amounts to $14. Our British friends are also the victims of these men, several "filled" sovereigns having been received in the Sub-Treasury at New York. These were shown to the detectives who were over here in the pursuit of the Bank of England forgers and were quite unknown to them. They are certainly a very dangerous and troublesome counterfeit.

As to the loss from re-coinage it is very little, if any above the estimate made last spring. In April Congress passed the Coinage Act, section 14 of which provides that the weight of one dollar piece shall be 28.8 grains and that shall be the unit of value; that is, that the quarter-eagle shall weigh two and a half times as much, the half-eagle five times as much, and so on. It also provides that "any gold coin of the United States if reduced in weight by natural abrasion not more than one half of one per cent. below the standard weight after the circulation of twenty years shall be received by the United States Treasury and its officers, under certain regulations, and that any gold coin in the Treasury reduced below this weight shall be re-coined. Quite a large amount of light coins are being melted down at a loss averaging from one-half to six-tenths of one per cent. This is about the usual loss suffered by coin during circulation for twenty years, though the large coin could lose much less in the same time, owing to smaller surface exposed in proportion to their weight.

BEN BUTLER'S DEFENCE OF THE BACK PAY STEAL.

General Butler is out in an elaborate letter defending the back-pay bill, and it is said this is one of the most able papers he has ever written, "rendered very entertaining from the flashes of sarcasm and wit that abound in it." He claims that the President's increased salary of $50,000 is not equal to the purchasing power to the $25,000 salary of Washington. He proceeds to show that the late bill about which so much has been said is not so much an increase as an equalization of the salaries of Members of Congress. (Where he finds figures to sustain him is a puzzle) He goes strongly for Minister Washburne who recently published a letter in which was stated that the people do not elect men to Congress to come to Washington to keep three or four mistresses and to "buck at the tigar." Butler says he never observed any disposition on the part of Washburne to object the appropriation of $50,000 passed in 1871 for defraying the expenses of the French minister of 1870, although the appropriotion was retroactive. He suggests that perhaps it is easier to indulge in the luxuries to which Washburne refers to at $17,500 a year in Paris than at $7,500 a year in Washington. He further claims that every public man, without exception, who has returned his share of the back-pay had on previous occasions voted for and accepted similar increases of salary. He indicates by name Senator Wilson, the Washburne family, Senator Sumner, General Banks, John H. Farnsworth, Daniel Webster, and several others as having previously supported retroactive increases of salary. He says that every Congress and every State legislature that has increased the pay of its members has made the increase date back to the beginning of the term in which it was voted, claimed that there is every precedent for and none against that feature.

Mr. Butler commands our respect for having the nerve to stand up against almost universal public sentiment and defend this measure, but his arguments prove nothing. Precedent cannot justify a wrongful act. It is very true that precedents are plentiful, but this only proves that the people are just waking up to resist such measures as those they once endured.

CONVENTION MEETINGS.

The week ending to-day has seen several conventions, some of them of considerable importance. First and foremost comes the "straight-out" Democratic convention at Columbus, Ohio. It has been conceded that the action of this convention will do much toward shaping the policy to be pursued by the Democracy during the campaign now coming upon us. We are, therefore, to conclude that this year there will be no coalition between the Democrats and Liberal Republicans. Our pseudo reformers are left out in the cold and will scarcely be heard of when it comes to counting up the result. Mr. William Allen, a hard-shell, fossilized Democrat of ante-bellum days, was nominated for Governor. This indicates a return to the issues of the olden time, though their resolutions declare that they desire to revive no dead issues. Last year the opposition adopted quite a respectable Republican platform, thereby endorsing the course pursued by the Republican party since the commencement of the late war. This year the Democrats are striving to take back what they then said. But what will the people think of such a vacillating organizaton, of a party that is constantly wavering in its principles? The "Allen County movement" was ridiculed and repudiated.

The Virginia Conservate convention comes second in importance. As there is considerable probability of the Conservatives carrying the State of Virginia we ought reasonably to expect to find them more insolent in tone than the Ohio Democrats. On the contrary, however, they are much more moderate. The third resolution is worthy of being quoted in full. It reads as follows: "That the Conservative party of Virginia, disclaiming all purpose of captious hostility to General Grant, will judge him impartially by his official action, and will cordially co-operate in every measure of his administration which may be beneficent in its design and calculated to promote the welfare of the people and to cultivate sentiments of good will between the different sections of the Union." The Democrats of Ohio could not have been induced to do as generous a thing as this. A good thing is just as good coming from one source as another, and I am happy to note the fact that the Conservatives of the South are advancing. They are already in advance of the Democrats of the North.

Besides the conventions named there were others of some importance. The Labor Reformers of Massachusetts met at Lowell and decided that neither of the existing parties have the interests of the workingmen at heart. The German Veteran Union held a convention at Milwaukee, and the colored Republicans of New York held one at Saratoga. Surely this is enough for one week.

STABBING AFFRAY.

At the schuotzenfest in this city on Wednesday night a difficulty occurred between Michael Hussey, of Baltimore, and H. H. Slatter, of Philadelphia, in which the former was fatally stabbed. He was not dead last night though his physicians said it was impossible for him to survive more than a few hours longer. A Catholic priest was called yesterday and the rites of that church administered. The mother and sister of the dying man were sent for and were yesterday at his bed-side. Slatter has so far eluded the officers and is still at large.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer undertakes to account for the fact that no member of Congress south of Mason and Dixon's line has returned his part of the salary grab to the National Treasury, by saying that the carpet-bag politicians have demoralized that region. Was it the carpet-baggers who demoralized the entire Kentucky delegation? The Democrats constitute a majority of the entire Southern Congressional delegation; were THEY, too, demoralized by the carpet-baggers?

STATE NEWS.

—There are five thousand miners in the Lehigh region.

—Twenty-five thousand barrels is estimated to be the daily production of oil in this State.

—A Lancaster county man filled his tight boots with corn and warm water over night to stretch them. The process was eminently successful.

—Indiana is to have a $100,000 State Normal School. The law allows the State twelve of these educational institutions.

—The young man, Jacob F. Early, who was nearly murdered in New Jersey last week, is a son of John Early, Esq., of Londondeary, Lebanon county. He has been brought home to the residence of his father.

—A little nine-year-old boy in Reading, Pa., whose mother had refused to take him with her to visit a friend's house, seventeen miles distant, was so mad about it that he started out and walked the whole distance, accomplishing it in seven hours.

—It is a common remark among the farmers of Greene county, that corn was never before known to grow so rapidly as it has done within the past month. Should the remainder of the season be favorable, the corn crop of the county will surpass anything in its past history.

—How handy some people are in drawing on the resources of heaven for favors to their friends. We overheard a young fellow sitting on the sharp end of a peaked rock on Spring Creek bank opposite Tom Burnside's the other night, observe to something he was holding in his arms, "Heaven bless you Matilda. Burnside's dog must be getting old, he can't track live game worth a cent.

—On Sunday afternoon last, says the Brookville Jeffersonian of last week, a woman named Shannahan, the wife of a laborer on the railroad, living near Bell's dam, on Sunday Lick, called on a neighboring woman and asked her to hold her child which was about a year old, and after placing the child in the care of her neighbor, she deliberately walked out to the dam and jumped into the water. The stream being very high, she soon disappeared, and at last accounts her body had not been recovered.

——Of the recent murder in Chester county, a correspondent of the Germantown Telegraph writes: There is no longer any doubt that Wm. T. Goss was the man murdered. It is true, however, that the public as yet have no information of the strength of the defence, and the prisoner, having employed eminent counsel it will doubtless be the most exciting trial ever had at this Court. On the part of the Commonwealth and insurance companies there have been two hundred witnesses already docketed for the trial, which comes off at the October term of Court.

—Miss E. J. Bennett, of Norristown, died on Sunday night under most singular and distressing circumstances. On Thursday last a passing locomotive frightened a young horse who stood tied to a fence in that borough. The horse broke loose, tearing the board from the fence, and raced up the street, the board from the fence swinging from the hitching strap. At the moment Miss Bennett was in the act of crossing the street, the horse came dashing along. The board swang around her and she was dragged twenty yards along the sidewalk. The horse stumbled and fell, and the young lady was taken from between his knees. As she was lifted up the blood spurted from her mouth, and she remained unconcious till her death.

—Elk County Democratic Convention met in the court House Monday July 21st. to nominate county officers. After temporarily organizing by the choice of Chas. H. Hoffman for chairman, they got into a rangle about who were delegates and who were not. At length a motion was made to adjourn without date. At once all was confusion. Without awaiting the result of the vote, some of the delegates left the court house in a paroxysm of rage, while others remained behind, beat the air with their arms, and gave vent to their angry feelings in bitter accusations. The chairman remained at his post until the greater portion of the delegates had taken their departure, when he quietly withdrew.

With this disgraceful scene closed the Democratic county convention of Elk. These dogs delight to bark and bite for Satan made them so.

Agricultural.

☞ NOTE.—We earnestly desire that this Department of our paper shall be made as useful as possible to our Agricultural friends, and therefore extend a cordial invitation to all parties interested, to favor us with contributions. Individuals who have made useful experiments and yet do not feel competent to write them out in form for publication, if they will favor us with the results we will take pleasure in putting them in proper shape.

What is a Grange?

It is an organization of farmers. It has for its object improvement. It is designed to elevate and enlighten the farmer. It would better qualify him for his God-given profession. It aims to bring about these objects by association. It unites those of the same calling into one grand brotherhood for the protection of all. It establishes in every neighborhood a lecture room—which is the grange itself—in which the most important truths are unfolded. It disseminates valuable information, that all may be benefitted. It collects as well as it disseminates. It receives knowledge as well as dispenses it. It is an intellectual institution. It calls for exercise of the mind. It brings mind in contact with mind, and, by the contact, other minds are illuminated by the friction. It draws out latent talent. It makes active and tangible what has been before dormant and unseen. It shows the importance of cultivating the brains as well as soil. It demonstates the fact that as rich harvests are developed by brainculture as by soil culture—that a great crop of weeds has grown up and smothered the useful plants of the neglect of the brain culture. The grange is a social institution. It makes a grand brother and sisterhood. It unites by strong ties, those that have before been strangers. It makes each feel an interest in all, and in each. It heals up the wounds of the unfortunate. It administers comforts and alleviates the sufferings of the distressed. It is a husband to the widow and a father to the orphan. It makes every neighborhood one kind, effectionate family. It is a financial institution. It seeks to obtain for its members the highest price for their products.

It looks to the good of all. It learns how and when the best prices can be obtained. It cuts the Gordian knot which has bound the farmer to the middle man, who has absorbed the chief profits of his labors. It buys the necessaries of life where they can be got the cheapest and best. It throws its protecting arms over and around all, and would make them more independent.

Ornament your Grounds.

"It is not necessary to make any defence of the practical value of the ornamentation of the grounds: the argument with reasonable people is short and conclusive. Beauty gives pleasure, beauty stimulates to higher activities; beauty sells in the market, and adds value to whatever it attaches, beauty makes the soul purer, the life sweeter, the hand stronger, the world itself brighter, and more blessed.

These are its effects, or, at least, its tendencies, in whatever it exhibits itself, whether in the shape of a statute, the color of a picture, the contour of a thoroughbred or a short horn, or in the adornment of a dooryard. Beauty is practical. It guides the hand of the machanic as he shapes the product of his art. It directs the horticulturist in his trees, flowers and fruits. It is one of those great forces, whose incessant efforts have shaped the civilization of the world."

Do Animals Count?

It argues higher powers than some people give them credit for if they do, and as a question of fact a correspondent of the Advance offers this testimony:

A gentleman of New Orleans says that the mules on a certain street railway are changed on the fifth round and and seem to recognize the fact by a whinny on approaching the terminus at the last time. An acquaintance of mine in Pennsylvania, who manufactured floor in large quantities, and drew it from his mill to the railroad station with the same team and same wagon, always loading the same number of barrels, found that his horses counted as accurately as his men; they would start off upon the instant that the last barrel of the load was settled in its place, and never before, and no attempts to cheat them by stopping one or two short of the number and waiting, or leaving the wagon would ever succeed.

How English Beef is Fattened.

The Englishmen is proverbial in his quality and love for roast beef. No such "roasts" are found anywhere else in the world. The modus operandi of its best production is as follows: A pit is dug generally about six feet deep and ten feet square, in which the animal to be fatted is lowered. It is then supplied with all the roots, hay, and meal it can digest, and furnished with the needful supply of water, as well as an abundant supply of straw for litter. The droppings are trampled under foot by the animal as he moves about in his narrow cell, and gradually by the accumulation, rise to a level with the surface of the ground. When the surface is thus reached he is ready for the knife and yields a rich juicy flesh, besides many tons of the best manure packed into the pit.

One great trouble with the American beef is, that the animal gets too much exercise. Even our stall fed animals are allowed to roam too much. But the worst feature of all is the fact that nearly all the beef found in the markets of our great cities, is driven there on foot, and killed without rest or recuperation, and of course in a diseased state. The animals transported by rail are but little, if any better, as the motion of the cars even for a few hours is extremely weakening and debilitating on any animal heavy with fat. Perfect quiet and good ventilation are essential to good beef.

When a bullock is taken from its pasture and placed in a stall or pit, it continues to grow in bone and muscle, or red flesh, as well as to accumulate fat, and the fatty matter is so blended with the muscular as to make the latter tender, juicy, and highly flavored.

In fattening, as a general thing, American cattle move too much, and hogs too little. The hog needs more exercise while fattening than a bullock—or at least, the evil effect of driving is not so perceptible as in driving cattle. Kentucky hogs, driven across the mountains into Virginia, are said to give sweeter flesh and more highly flavored hams than corn-fed hogs fattened in Virginia.

TRANSPLANTING IN THE NIGHT.—A gentleman anxious to ascertain the effect of transplanting at night, instead of by day, made an experiment with the following results:

He transplanted ten cherry trees while in bloom, commencing at four o'clock in the afternoon, planting one each hour until one o'clock in the morning. Those transplanted during the daylight shed their blossoms, producing little or no fruit, while those planted in the dark maintained their condition fully. He did the same with ten dwarf trees, after the fruit was one-third grown. Those transplanted during the day shed their fruit; those transplanted during the night perfected their crop, and showed no injury from having been removed. With each of these he removed some earth with the roots. The incident is fully vouched for; and if a few more similar experiments produce a like result, it will be a strong argument to horticulturists, etc., to do such work at night.—Western Rural.

IMPROVMENTS PAY.—A correspondent of the Rural Sun writes: I often hear it asserted that it does not pay to improve land if you wish to sell. "The profit you receive will not pay for the improvments." I think every day's labor will pay a man two dollars. I purchased a small tract of land for $700 cash, remodeled my new farm, reset the the fences, set out one hundred and fifty trees, and sowed my woodland in grass, sowed a nice meadow, and all done, I was offered in cash for the property $1,200. I therefore think it will pay every farmer to improve his land. Every man who has a farm can always find something that will eventually remunerate him. Fill up the small gullies, which, if left would soon be large ones; cut side branches; clean out the feuce corners, so that the stock may not be tempted to push it over, and that the fence be kept dry and preserved from rotting; haul out the manure that lies around your barns wasting and giving your horses the scratches.

SOWING ON HORSEBACK.—The Otago Times has an account of a novel mode of seed-sowing adopted by a farmer in the Maungatua district. Mounted on horseback he rides along, one rein fastened to each foot for guiding the horse and scattering "a perfect hurricane" of seed with both hands.

DEEP tillage is very essential to good farming.

Changing Pastures.

A correspondent of The Weekly World asks farmers to give their experince as to the advantages and disadvantages of changing cows from one pasture to another during the grazing season; that is, is it better that the pasture be in one field or in two or three, so that there may be periodical changes into fresh feed. This matter deserves the attention of grazers, and some with extended experience have emphatic opinions relative to the matter, that it is far better that there be no change, care being taken not to over-stock the pasture, and to provide soiling material (sowed corn, rye or oats) with which to supplement the grazing in case of continued drought or the falling off of grass supply from any cause. O then other hand, others deem change essential, care being taken that it be at regular intervals, and at such intervals as not to allow too rank a growth in the fresh pastures, thereby deranging the appetite and stomachs of animals. Others think all the change needed—and the wisest one to make—is from the pastures in which the cows have foraged during the day to another at night after milking. Facts and figures, the critical experience and observation of our readers are solicited in reference to this matter; for the time is at hand when the arrangement of pastures must be made for the coming season, and those who may be doubting what to do will be glad to be aided to a conclusion by the testimony of their brethren.

CRUELTY to animals is often less the mark of a brutal than of an ignorant person. Among those in charge of dumb creatures it will usually be found that the men better acquainted with the characteristics of the quadrupeds are kinder toward them. Drivers are often destitute of the slightest comprehension of the poor animals in their power, and consequently have no faith or trust in any rule over them but that of terror and pain. The truth is that they who are the more observant of animals find the most intelligence in them, and make discoveries that surprise others, in reference to the tractability and responsiveness of their mute fellow-mortals. Animals that are sympathizingly treated almost invariably develop a degree of sagacity astonishing to the uninitiated. The horse, cow, dog or cat in some families is always a wonderful specimen of its kind, for no other reason than that it is intelligently appreciated.—St. Louis Globe.

As the time is near for putting up green corn, for next winter and spring, the following mode will be found the best and cheapest: Take corn, such as is used for roasting ears, husk and clean them, place them in a common wash boiler or kettle and boil them until nearly or quite done, then take them out of the water, and cut the corn from the cob, and put up in a stone jar sufficient to hold the amount desired, with alternate layers of (first) salt and (second) corn. One inch of salt to two of corn is about the proper proportion. When desired for the table, take out as much as you want for one meal, the previous night, put it to soak in fresh water, changing the water once or twice before cooking, you will have corn as fresh and sweet as though just cut from the cob. No brine is formed so the layers of salt can be used for cooking purposes. Try it.

—The York Press says that a new worm has attacked the wheat in that region. It says: The worm has never been known to the farmers in this section before. It is about an inch long and half in circumference, of a white color, with a light green tint. The head has a free articulation, and looks like a cuneated horn-clad punch, well calculated to aid a formidable looking pair of semi-lunar horizontal jaws, that work laterally, like sharp sickles toward each other in breaking down and hollowing out a grain of wheat, which it does by commencing at the top of the grain and working in a transverse direction to the base, leaving but the shell.

SUNDAY READINGS.—No. 21.

Him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.—John.

Such is the encouraging assurance of our Savior to those who would seek through Him purification of heart and life. He compels no man to follow him; he lays no restriction upon human choice, but by eloquence of love he seeks men from the letter which killeth to the spirit that giveth life. Him that cometh to me! Aye, we must go to him, he may not come to us. He has shown us the better way, has become the light and the truth, has taught the necessity of a repentance that reaches to the depths of the soul, has portrayed the peace that is the reward of holiness has promised that he will in no wise cast him out who seeks in his Savior peace, strength and consolation.

Who can doubt the wisdom of the guide God has sent us! How he searches the motives of men and lays them bare! How he admonishes the hypocrite and tears away his mask! How he loves the lowly and commands the widow's mite before all the treasury! How truly he estimates character, stripping away from disguises and ranking it according to its real merits!

He does not stand aloof, philosopher, sage, judge, but shows Himself friend, teacher, helper of such as will accept his aid and instruction. He knows how heavy are life's burdens, and says "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." To the desponding he speaks of the mansions in his Father's house, prepared for such as believe and obey.

He can realize the force of temptations for he knew them; he can sympathize with our sorrows for he wept over the grave of his friend; he knew the bitter stings of poverty for he had not where to lay his head; he felt all the burdens of scorn and contumely; he saw himself betrayed and deserted; he experienced the anguish of bodily suffering, and who then better knew the lights and shadows of our mortality?

In all points like as we are without sin, therefore was He appointed our Master and Teacher. Through His humanity can we draw nearer than otherwise to the "holy of holies" in His guileless breast. Had He never smiled or wept, rejoiced or sorrowed, felt the bitter pangs of cold, hunger and neglect, we should have lacked the loving sympathy, the pitying tenderness that now renders Him so dear to our tried and stricken hearts.

How should we show Him that we recognize His authority, that we appreciate the holiness of His life, the beauty of His charater, and that we trust in His revelation of immortality? There is but one answer, by obedience. This comprehends all His requirements, from the love of God to the love of man.

No one knew better than He how uncertain is the tenure of all earthly possessions, therefore He besought us to seek such as neither moth and rust can corrupt. He knew the slender thread of life and He whispers amid our desolation, "thy brother shall live again." When our burdened hearts grow faint we hear in fullest sympathy the healing words, "come unto me, I will in no wise cast you out, and the storm waves are stilled and the wearied soul finds peace.

We all need the strength and consolation offered to us through Christ. Earth has them not amid all her grandeur and beauty; they have no home in all the broad firmament; they belong to the things that are unseen and eternal and they come without observation; come to soothe and bless.

We are all hastening to the presence of Him who died for us; whether He will receive us depends upon ourselves. In the city that has no need of the sun or moon He awaits our coming. Woe for us if we cannot sit down with Him in glory at the latter day.

INFLUENCE OF COMPANIONS.—It is said to be a property of the tree-frog that it acquires the color of whatever it adheres to for a short time. Thus, when found on growing corn it is commonly of a dark green. If found on white oak, it takes the color peculiar to that tree. Just so it is with children; they generally resemble those with whom they associate.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—The will of Hon. H. N. McAllister having been admitted to probate, letters testamentary thereunder have been issued to the undersigned, of which all persons interested will please take notice.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL

PURELY — DR. WALKER'S — CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain longun well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all those cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassfull. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

Republican Delegate Elections and County Convention.

The Republican voters of Centre county are requested to assemble at their usual places of holding Delegate elections, on

SATURDAY, AUGUST 23, 1873,

for the purpose of electing delegates to represent them in the County Convention, to be held in Reynolds' Hall, Bellefonte, on

TUESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1873,

at 2 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of nominating a ticket to be supported at the ensuing October election.

JOHN T. JOHNSTON,
Aug 9, '73-td. Chairman.

ANOTHER ACCEPTANCE.—That venerable old fossil, known in the political parlance as the Democratic party, has again accepted the results of the war. This time it accepts them in good faith. It goes through this form of acceptance at least once a year. If a town clock is the objective point in the struggle, the Democracy must first announce to the dear people that it has accepted the results of the war. We are glad to hear this coutinued reiteration of the good intentions of Democracy, for we shudder to think of the fearful consequences which would follow the party's refusal to accept the results of the war. But when they accept "in good faith" as they did at Baltimore, and more recently at Columbus, Ohio, we feel like ordering a hundred guns fired in honor of their conversion. But we find our benevolent impulses slightly checked by a faint suspicion that this "good faith" part of the programme is another wooden horse to be rolled in the gates of Troy. If the Democrats have honestly accepted the results of the war, have buried their ancient prejudices against the colored race, and believe in the Union as the rock of our national salvation, why do they wish to overthrow the Republican party, which gave to the results of the war the binding force of constitutional authority; that broke the chains of the slave, and made him a freeman; that conducted the nation through a bloody rebellion; and, by its labors and sacrifices, made possible the Union we now enjoy. According to their professions, they accent these results, yet express deadly opposition to the party that brought them about. Before we join the Democratic party, or take stock in the professions made on the eve of an election, we shall ask a few practical illustrations of their new departure. Hitherto, when a Democrat got far enough along to eccept in good faith the results of the war, we knew wherh to look for him. He stood in the Republican ranks, the target for Democratic abuse, and no words were severe enough to condemn the man who left the Democratic party to actively labor for the very results which the party now professes to accept. If the Liberal Democracy have nothing better to offer than this acceptance of the results of the war, the sooner they go into bankruptcy the better.

The party in power has done, and is continuing to do, more than these sham reformers promise, so that if they should obtain power, and carry out all they agree upon, the change could not be for the better. But who believes these Democratic professions? They are made to deceive, and are intended to be broken. The people know the party too well to again entrust it with power. It has been weighed and found wanting, and can never return to the places whence it was driven. It may seek the disguise of a new name, but the people will konw it, and put their seal of condemnation upon it whenever it appears.

W. W. BROWN, of Mrs. Brown's paper, claims to have a great many friends in this county who will stand by him (to use a homely phrase), "through thick and thin." We have asserted and proven, and it has not been denied either in Mrs. Brown's paper or the Watchman, that he had entered into a villainous plot—villainous at least on his part—to betray these same friends, to assist in doing the work laid out by Meek and others, perhaps the Court House brigade, for which he (Brown), receives, or has received a consideration. That the paper was started to serve the interest of certain leading Democratic politicians, and that, being in their interest, he does not and dare not call in question seriously, the doings of Meek or the official corruption of the Court Houst brigade. They own this pretended Republican newspaper which they have paid for with county patronage. We speak again of this matter because it is of vital importance to every man in Centre Co., be he Republican or Democrat. It shows to the Democrat what use the officers which received their support at the last election, are making of the county patronage and funds, and to the Republicans, a scheme by one of their own number, to palm off upon them a paper which, while it claims to represent their principles, is really serving the interests of their political opponents. We have repeated this charge again and again.—The Watchman not being able to clear itself, says "it is not their funeral." If it isn't, the people may make it so.

Mrs. Brown's paper being in the same fix, deals out a little over a column of personal abuse, makes a threat of showing up certain men in Bellefonte, which threat it has made a dozen times before but has never done it, and there the case rests on their part, and now we submit it to the intelligent masses of the people, and ask, do you intend to be imposed upon in this manner? As a remedy we submit, would it not be well to have at least one County Commissioner who shall be a Republican, and a few other Republican county officers. We ask the taxpayers to consider this matter to this end, that we shall have less fraud and more purity in the administration of our county affairs.

We have no defence to make in favor of those who accept back pay whether they be Republicans or not. It was a wicked betrayal of the confidence of the people and we earnestly hope that every one who voted for the infamous act or accepted the proceeds of the steal will be remembered by the people and never entrusted with their confidence again. Below we give the list by states of those who up to Aug. 1st had returned their back pay to the treasury as shown by the books of Mr. Spinner, Treasurer of the United States.

New York—R. E. Fenton, W. A. Wheeler, W. R. Roberts, S. S. Cox, Eli Perry, W. L. Sessions, C. N. Potter, C. L. Merriam; four Republicans and Democrats.

New Jersey—G. A. Halsey, F. T. Frelinghuysen, John Hill; three Republicans.

Pennsylvania—John Scott, Washington Townsend; two Republicans.

Maine—H. Hamlin, J. A. Peters, Eugene Hale, W. P. Frye; four Republicans.

Connecticut—W. A. Buckingham, J. R. Hawley, H. H. Starkweather; three Republicans.

Vermont—W. Willard, Republican.

Ohio—James A. Garfield, James Monroe, W. H. Upson, Charles Foster, A. G. Thurman, John Sherman; five Republicons, one Democrat.

Indiana—D. D. Pratt, W. S. Holman, M. C. Kerr, John Coburn; two Republicans and two Democrats.

Illinois—C. B. Farwell, John M. Crebs, J. B. Hawley; two Republicans and one Democrat.

Wisconsin—G. W. Hazelton, J. M. Rusk, J. Allen Barber, Alexander Mitchell, Philetus Sawyer; four Republicans and one Democrat.

Iowa—G. M. McCrary, A. R. Cotton; two Republicans.

Missouri—Carl Schurz, G. A. Finkelenburg; two Republicans.

Michigan—J. W. Ferry, Z. Chandler, Wilder D. Foster, Henry Waldron; four Republicans.

Massachusetts—Charles Summer, Henry Wilson; two Republicans.

Rhode Island—H. B. Anthony, Republican.

Delaware—J. F. Bayard, Democrat.

California—Eugene Casserly, Democrat.

The list thus presented shows that of the fifty-two Senators and Representatives forty-one are Repuplicans and eleven Democrats. The last amount received was under date of July 23.

——Millheim is undergoing a series of improvements. We notice Mr. Michael Ulrich, the renowned saddler on the hill, has added a wing to his dwelling and in connection has remodeled the other part and improved it considerably. Also Mr. Thomas Frank, our genial and polite tailor, has made a raise by remodeling his dwelling considerably. Mr. D. A. Musser has changed the dwelling house one door east of the Hardware into a store room which is to be occupied by a tobacconist in a few days. We also hear the noise of carpenters on the third story of W. L. Musser's building, which indicates that the Sherriff is finishing his building. Success to all, may many profit by their example.—Berichter.

——The "Watchman" remarked several times last week that it was hot. We are very happy indeed to agree with them on one point and will proceed to remark it is very hot. It is no wonder that the old divines used heat as a terror to frighten evil doers and an editor who will sit all day on a glazed cushion and blackguard and lie such weather as this and never think of his latter end don't deserve to have any latter end. If evil doers are going where the themometer gets any higher than it is now we advise them to reform at once. Come, while there is room.

——The civil-damages law, under which any wife can sue and receive damages from a liquor seller for any damages caused by selling liquor to her husband, is in force in Michigan. One of the pnblicans in Saginaw City, conceiving that a wife might relinquish her claim to damages by granting a permit to her husband to buy liquor, hit npon the device of posting the following notice in his saloon:

"On and after the 1st day of August, 1873, no liquor, wine or beer will be sold to any married man without a permit from his wife.
GEORGE LADLEY."

Another publican, not willing to be thus out-done, varied the notification, and ornamented his saloon by posting this card:

"No liquor, wine or beer will be sold to any married woman without a permit from her husband.
MICHAEL MCGINNS."

And then the idea burst upon the astonished vision of some one who put the two cards together that husband and wife, by reciprocal permits, can drink without limit, and without legal responsibility on the part of the seller. We do not see, however, that this amounts to much, since "reciprocal permits" will not be easily obtained, and the civil damages law is not intended for the benefit of those who mutually get drunk.

ON Saturday evening, July 19, about 9 o'clock, a fight took place at the residence of William Phalen, Harter township, Elk county, Pa., resulting in the death of Wm. Phalen at the hands of William Bromley, who fractured his skull with a fence stake. They had just returned from one of the Democratic primary meetings, and had got into a dispute about the respective merits of their favorite candidates, which ended thus fatally.

The stake with which the blows were inflicted was from four to five feet in length, and had upon the end with which the deceased was struck, a small knot or curvature, which rendered it more effective as a weapon of destruction. This weapon was shown in the testimony to have lain on the opposite side of the road from where the homicide occurred. The deceased was sixty-six years of age, and was well known through the county, having been a resident there for many years. The murderer made good his escape.

Burning of Patomac Steamer.—Great Loss of Life.

The steamer Wawasset, running on the Potomac river between Washington and Curriman, was destroyed by fire at Chatalon Landing, last Saturday. She had 150 passengers on board, including men, women and children. The fire originated in the hold, and although every effort was made to subdue it, it completely baffled all attempts. The steamer was immediately headed for shore, and run aground about two hundred yards from the Virginia side. The flames made such rapid progress that a great many jumped into the water to escape being burned and were drowned. About one-half the passengers were women and children, many of whom were en route to the country places along the Potomac to spend a short time with their friends. Quite a number of colored people were among the passengers. The Wawasset is a side-wheel steamer about 350 tons, and was engaged in running between Washington and landings along the Potomac. She was insured for $28,000. As soon as the particulars of the disaster became known, great crowds collected about the wharves, and the steamer Express was boarded by hundreds of persons anxious to learn the fate of friends on the ill-fated steamer, but as the registry list was destroyed no positive particulars as to names could be gained. A Coroner's inquest was held and a verdict returned relieving the officers from all blame,—no one to blame.

There were boats and life-preservers, but a panic prevented their use. It is well enough to preach about presence of mind, but nothing is more apt to be found missing, when wanted, then this same quality. One can only marvel and deplore. This time it will be a pleasure to think that it was by no man's culpability that so many women and children were driven by fire to seek a grave under the golden Potomac.

Democratic County Convention---The Ring Triumphant---Meek and Orvis Compelled to Shake hands over the Bloody Chasm---Fred. Kurtz and the "Centre Hall Reporter" Counted Out.

The Democratic County Convention met at the Court House, on Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 P. M. Maj. Forster, chairman of the County Committee, called the delegates to order and delivered himself of a pious exhortation which seemed to bring tears in the eyes of the "unterrified" hearers. When the Major got through, he announced that he would entertain a motion for Chairmain, when ex-Sheriff T. M. Hall, was nominated and took the chair with his usual dignity,

S. S. Wolf, C. M. Bower and Alfred Walters were chosen secretaries.

Seventy-five delegates answered to their names. Huston, Taylor and Union townships not being represented. Democracy being so thin in these townships no meetings were held; but the Convention named substitutes which Completed the quota.

When the list of delegates was made up, Secretary Wolf requested each one to answer to his name, all of whom responded correctly except Ed. Brown of the south ward, who yelled "Dobbins" [great laughter.]

Senator.—P. Grey Meek, by aclamation with power to select his own conferees, to which the chairman Hall took exceptions. This was unexpected to the Meek party, who forced him to put the question, for they had made him president of the conventions, to keep him from souring on Meek.

Assembly.—John H. Orvis, by aclamationr.

The nomination of Treasurer being next in order, created some confusion, but the balloting was proceeded with as follows:

	1st.	2nd	3d.	4th	5th.
J. H. Dobbins,	17	..	..	...	..
J. H. Barnhart,	13	16	..	..	..
J. B. Mitchell,	13	24	36	37	39
H. G. Smith,	14	14	18	14	14
Thomas Yearick,	21	23	24	24	22

On the fifth ballot the Ring candidate was triumphant.

COMMISSIONER.

	1st.	2nd.	3d.	4th.	5th.	6th.	7th.
W. M. Winters,	17	18	20	26	22	21	..
Jno. G. Sankey,	24	23	22	24	31	30	40
H. Corman,	21	21	21	22	22	24	35
J. Kreamer,	4	4	3	3	..	..	..
Geo. Myers,	8	8	8	..	..	..	..

Here again the Court House brigade was triumphant and goes to show with how much tenacity a democrat holds on to the public teat when once he gets hold of it. Miles township, one of the Democastic strong holds, had two candidates but the Court House wire pullers were too strong for them.

JURY COMMISSIONER.

	1st.	2nd.
Jerry Haines,	12	7
Jno. Hosterman,	18	16
J. H. Talbert,	10	7
Michael Grove,	33	42

Candidates for Auditors.—Samuel Frank, 2 years, and A. J. Griest for 3 years, were nominated by acclamation amid great confusion. At this juncture a delegate from Rush twp., desired the Convention to establish some rule that would settle the question of tie votes at delegate elections, to which Sheriff Hall replied, "draw cuts." Adjourned. Dobbins and Barnhart showed their strength and withdrew. The other defeated candidates and their friends surrendered under protest and retired in confusion.

It is thought that it will take the Court House Brigade several days to gather up stragglers.

The above is about as weak a ticket as could have been made, to which we shall pay our undivided respects in the furture for it is a ring triumph and nothing less,

——The corner stone of the new Evangelical Church at Centre Hall will be laid on the 17th of August with appropriate ceremonies.

——Parents in search of a good school, with cheap rates, should send for a circular of Tuscarora Academy, Academia, Juniata county, Pa. [30-2t.

The Democracy of Ohio do not take to the new departure very kindly after all. They met in convention at Columbus last Wednesday, Aug. 6th, and nominated Hon. Wm. Allen for Governor. Allen is an old line Democrat of the Dough face stamp. He is a lawyer by profession and was a member of congress from 1833 to 1835 and served in ths United States Senate from 1837 to 1849, and was as loyal during the war of the rebellion as the editor of the Watchman or any other northern rebel. It would seem that the now rampant Democrats of that State want to kill Allen county with Allen himself; and it will be a marvel if they do not kill Allentoo. As Mr. Allen's letter of acceptance is brief we give it in full.

CHILLICOTHE, O., August 6, 1873.

W. H. Ball, President Democratic State Convention, Columbus, Ohio:

I accept the nomination, and desire the Convention to accept my gratitude for it. I accept it because the Convention, by bestowing it, expresses the belief that I may be of some service in promoting the success of the great Democracy, upon whose success, and upon that alone reste the prosperity, liberty and happiness of the American people

Den pooty soon before dat dis infornal Rale Rote, (vot hasent come), he comes up de narraws shure, and den dat Tamrask-Hell, Shin-Cope-Ben, he comes around and talks him to pay shares, and he fules round a leetle, and now he pays dat too, and so he takes care of his monish now effery time, and dat ish de vay how he gets fuled all along and before now and den, and still dem dam fellers dey shwindle him all de vile.

I goes no more to dat cadamy now any more—not much—dats playd out, long before now, and de ole man, he says, "you vant a tam rascal, yust you sent him to Kolledge and dare dey vil make him retty pooty soon for de Zembly and de Temsherry."

Now I tells you someding somtimes, dat such sings as dem Padden wright swintles and dem Rale Rote dings and sich, dey makes his eys vide open right off, and he noes a sing or too alretty putty soon after dat, and look out, he vill make dem Padden wright fellers, and dem Loyyers, and office-Sekars and Polly Tishshens yets got Kolledge Eddycashuns look out sometimes before long, anyhow.

I tells you he is scratching off de skales vots on his eys, pooty fast, and he is commin out of de gypshun darkness in vich he grooped so long in icknorense and pliss, and den mabee he vil be yusht as vite as annypoddy els or any odter man vat nose nossing anyhow.

Vait, I say yusht vait another vile or so and you vill see vat sings will change for de petter or vors; den mabee it vill be petter for some fellers if dey vas dare gran-mother, den to be salleree Krabbing all over around every vare and spending de monish like dirt, and soforse.

De ole man is gittin enlightened fast—dis Rale Rote and sich chaps as Shim-Cope-Ben, and dat Fritty-Cords, and Shack nasty Pete, has opened his eys considerable alretty before now, for he nose now, too, how to say, "yes, dat I vill do," and den squirm around and slip out of it like a Pens Crick Eel. It dident used to be so wis him ven dat ole man printed de Berichter in Aaronsburg, (vots printed now in Millheim, and vich has bat inklish on von side, and poorer dutch on de odter), den it vas all dutch; but de ole man is no more because he died—pees to his ashes—dem good times died too—pees to dare ashes—but de ole fellers vots not enlightened yet, dey say dem times ven a man said he would, it vas yust as gute as his note, and better den in dese late days of cawners and sich like—but de longer a man lifs de more he finds by tam out, and dats vats de matter now anyhow, because dey get every day more enlightened all de vile mid dose sings.

De ole man, dat ish my fotter, he ties a sthring to effry dings vot he promises, den ven it ish petter to crawl up pehind, den you pet he pulls mighty quick dem promises back right avay, and dats vat comes of dese enlightening vot dey learns from dem dam Polly-Tisheners vots ruening dis coundry for monish all over effry plase.

Now I tell you somding, Mr. 2 by 10, vot I vant to say too you—if dis samble of my style is all right, den if you like, I vould pitch in somtimes mabee, and I tell somedings more vot I nose, and gif you some news vots going on de vile anyhow.

A Jolly, Good Book.

OUR DIGESTION; OR, MY JOLLY FRIEND'S SECRET, by Dio Lewis, A. M., M. D., author of "Our Girls," etc., etc.,

It is a real pleasure to get hold occasionally, of a plain, practical common-sense book, that bears on its every page as the evident design of its author, the good of his fellow-man (and woman, too). Nhree-fourths of all the sickness and nnhappiness in our midst has a weak digestion for its prime cause. This being a self-evident fact, our only wonder is that a book like "Our Digestion" has not been written long ago. Now that it has been done, we are glad it has been so well done, and by so popular, practical and jolly a man as our friend Dio Lewis. Search the country over, and you cannot find a man botter suited for the task. His admirers are numbered by thousands, and all will welcome gladly a new book from his delightful pen.
LEVI GARBRICK, Agent.

LOCKE'S MONTHLY for August contains, among other good things, a love story by MRS. A. M. Tracy Cutler, the celebrated Woman Suffrage Advocate; a characteristic, humorous sketch, by Petroleum V. Nasby; a story of married life, by Mrs. J. G. Burnett; the concluding chapters of "Mrs Simpson's Troubles," by Wm. H. Busbey; a striking article on Ghosts and Goblins, and numerous poems, sketches and tales. The number will be sent to any address for ten cents Address,

LOCKE & JONES, Toledo, Ohio.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

A CLERGYMAN writing to a friend says. "My voage to Europe is indefinitely postponed. I have discovered the 'fountain of health' on this side of the Atlantic. Three bottles of Peruvian Syrup have rescued me from the pangs of the fiend Dyspepsia." Dyspeptics should drink from this fountain.

ANOTHER ARTICLE OF COMMON HOUSEHOLD USE SUPRERSEDED.

Associated with the earlier recollections of a great many men and women is the memory of the Bath brick and emery stone wherewith the knives and forks, and pans and kettles, and other kitchen articles were at stated times "scoured up." That primative mode prevails to-day in thousands of families who have never used Sapolio. But once let Sapolio be used for this purpose and that housewife never wants Bath brick or emery stone any more. Sapolio not only scores off all rust and tarnish, it brightens, bestows a polish as brilliant as new, and does it in one tenth the time required by any other substance. Sold everywhere. Housekeepers, try it.

A STERLING ARTICLE.

—Is Messrs STUART, PETERSON & CO'S Philadelphia Cooking Stove, the "Barley Sheaf!" And this being the fact, it's no more than a natural consequence that the firm should be the recipients of so many high encomiums from so many different points. One of the most admirable vualities of the "Barley Sheaf" is in its ability as a baker; the oven doors being double tin lined, the heat is retained and diffused in such a manner that it bakes rapidly and thoroughly, and at the same time economizes in fuel to a remarkable degree. A number of very important additions have recently been made to the B. S. Dust Shaking and Dumping Grate, the workings of which are fully described in the illustrated descriptive Circulars of the firm.

Centaur Liniment.

There is no pain which the Centaur Liniment will not relieve, no swelling it will not subdue and no lameness which it will not cure. This is strong language, but it is true. Where the parts are not gone, its effects are marvelous. It has produced more cures of rheumatism, neuralgia, lock-jaw, palsy, sprains, swellings caked-breasts, scalds, burns, salt-rheum, earache, &c., upon the human frame, and of strains spavin, galls. &c., upon animals in one year than have all other pretended remedies since the world began. It is a counter-irritant, an all-healing pain reliever. Cripples throw away their crutches, the lame walk, poisonous bites are endered harmless, and the wounded are healed without a scar. It is no humbug. The recipe is published around each bottle. It is selling as no article ever before sold, and it sells because it does just what it pretends to do. Those who now suffer from rheumatism, pain or swelling, deserve to suffer if they wil not use Centaur Liniment. More than 1000 certificates of remarkable cures, including frozen limbs, chronic rheumatism, gout, running tumors, &c., have been received. We will send a circular containing certificates, the recipe, &c., gratis, to any one requesting it. One bottle of the yellow wrapper Centaur Liniment is worth one hundred dollars for spavined or sweenied horses and mules, or for screw-worm in sheep. Stock-owners—this liniment is worth your attention. No family should be without Centaur Liniment. Price, 50c. a bottle, large bottles $1. 00. J. B. ROSE & Co.,
53 Broadway, New York.

CASTORIA is more than a substitute for Castor Oil. It is the only safe article in existence which is certain to assimilate the food, regulate the bowels, cure wind-colic and produce natural sleep. It contains neither minerals, morphine or alcohol, and is pleasant to take. Children need not cry and mothers may rest.

A fire in Boston, recently, damaged the Belting Company's works to the extent of $50,000. Loss covered by insurance.

Levi Bissell, the well known inventor of locomotive and other machinery, died in New York on last Tuesday week.—He was a brother of the late Gov. Bissell, of Illinois.

The Labor Reformers of Massachusetts have convened for the purpose of taking issues with the two parties in the Senatorial field. They do not propose to nominate a State ticket.

The effort of the Democratic papers to get up sensation about a third term for Gen. Grant creates considerable entertainment in official circles, as illustrating by what ingenious means there may be much ado about nothing.

There was a story reported a few days ago that the commander of the Shenandoah had undertaken to regulate the conduct of a Spanish frigate in the harbor of Codry. The report is probably false as a later dispatch represented everything quiet and satisfactory.

Col. George F. McFarland, of Harrisburg, one of the delegates from the U. S. to the Good Templar's League of England, spoke at several very large meetings in London, Manchester and Liverpool, at each of which he was received with great enthusiasm.

Genuine epidemic cholera has made its appearance in the suburbs of Pittsburg, so reported by the city physician, after consultation with other medical men. This is the first appearance of the scourge in Pennsylvania, this season.—Will it travel eastward?

Brigham Young's seventeenth wife has sued for a divorce claiming two hundred thousand dollars, this was likely to be a very interesting case. The Prophet at first treated the matter with high distain but he has since come down from his lofty pinnacle and after considerable diplomacy has succeeded in settling the matter with number seventeen by paying her the sum of $15,000, so that makes an end of what might have been a huge lawsuit.

Samuel M. Williamson, a resident of Willmington, Del., was accidentally shot in a pawn-shop, at the corner of Third and South streets, Philadelphia, Aug. 4. He was examining a gun, and a colored man named Dempsey Butler was looking at a pistol, when the latter was accidentally discharged. The ball entered the left side of Williamson, passing downwards. He was removed to the hospital in a dangerous condition.

A dispatch from Elm Creek, Nebraska, states that on Tuesday morning of last week, while a party of two hundred and forty Pawnee Indians were hunting near Republican river, on Blackwood creek, they were surprised and attacked by a large body of Sioux Indians. A bloody fight ensued, resulting in the defeat of the Pawnees, whose loss was about one hundred persons, comprising some of the best men in the tribe, and the most of their horses, arms and game. They were pursued 25 or 30 miles, and only escaped when night came.

Their was a disasterous fire in Portland Maine last Saturday in which there were three steamers together with several freight sheds with freight and baggage, several thousand bushels of grain, 500 tons of coal were destroyed. The fire originated in the New York freight sheds and spread rapidly. The loss is estimated at $600,000. The stewardess of the Steamer Dirigo which was burned to the water edge, together with her daughter and a man by the name of Frank Taylor are missing, supposed to be drowned.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN AN IRON TONIC SYRUP

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.

SAPOLIO is a substitute for Soap for all Household purposes, except washing clothes.

SAPOLIO for Cleaning your House will save the labor of one cleaner. Give it a trial.

SAPOLIO for Windows is better than Whiting or Water. No removing curtains or carpets

SAPOLIO cleans Paint and Wood, in fact the whole house, better than Soap. No slopping.—Saves labor. You can't afford to be without it

SAPOLIO for Scouring Knives is better and cleaner than Bath Brick. Will not scratch.

SAPOLIO is better than Soap and Sand for polishing Tinware. Brightens without scratching.

SAPOLIO Polishes Brass and Copper utensils better than Acid or Oil and Rotten Stone.

SAPOLIO for Washing Dishes and Glassware is invaluable. Cheaper than Soap.

SAPOLIO removes Stanes from Marble Mantels, Tables and Statuary, from Hard-finished Walls, and from China and Porcelain.

SAPOLIO removes Stains and Grease from Carpets or other woven fabrics.

There is no one article known that will do so many kinds of work and do it as well as Sapolio. Try it.

HAND SAPOLIO a new and wonderfully effective Toilet Soap, having no equal in this country or abroad.

HAND SAPOLIO as an article for the Bath. "reaches the foundation" of all dirt, opens the pores and gives a healthy action and brilliant tint to the skin.

HAND SAPOLIO Cleanses and Beautifies the Skin, instantly removing any stain or blemish from both hands and face.

HAND SAPOLIO is without a rival in the world for curing or preventing roughness and chapping of either hands or face.

HAND SAPOLIO removes Tar, Pitch, Iron or Ink Stains and Grease; for workers in Machine Shops, Mines, &c., is invaluable. For making the Skin White and soft, and giving to it a "bloom of beauty," it is unsurpassed by any Cosmetic known.

HAND SAPOLIO costs 10 to 15 cents per cake, and everybody should have it. You will like it.

DON'T FAIL TO TRY THESE GOODS

Buy it of your merchant if he has it or will procure it for you. If not, then write for our Pamphlet, "All about Sapolio," and it will be mailed free.

Medical.

Has been before the American public OVER THIRTY years. It has never yet failed to give perfect satisfaction, and has justly been styled the panacea for all external Wounds, Cuts, Burns, Swellings, Sprains, Bruises, &c., &c., for Man and Beast. No family should be a single day without this Liniment. The money refunded unless the Liniment is as represented. Be sure and get the genuine MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT. Sold by all Druggists and Country Stores, at 25c., 50c. and $1.00 per Bottle. Notice style, size of bottle, &c.

KATHAIRON

Only 50 Cents per Bottle.

It promotes the GROWTH, PRESERVES the COLOR, and increases the Vigor and BEAUTY of the HAIR.

OVER THIRTY YEARS AGO LYON'S KATHAIRON FOR THE HAIR was first placed in the market by Professor E. Thomas Lyon, a graduate of Princeton College. The name is derived from the Greek, "KATHRO," signifying to cleanse, purify, rejuvenate, or restore. The favor it has received, and the popularity it has obtained, is unprecedented and incredible. It increases the GROWTH and BEAUTY of the HAIR. It is a delightful dressing. It eradicates Dandruff. It prevents the Hair from turning gray. It keeps the head cool, and gives the hair a rich, soft, glossy appearance. It is the SAME in QUANTITY and QUALITY as it was over a QUARTER of a CENTURY AGO, and is sold by all Druggists and Country Stores at only Fifty Cents per Bottle.

Woman's Glory is Her Hair.

JUST OUT—THE NEW LIGHT RUNNING

HOWE

THE GRANDEST PRODUCTION OF INVENTIVE GENIUS.

The new factory of the Howe Company is nearly completed, and

1000

ARE NOW BEING MANUFACTURED AND SOLD DAILY!

The total number sold last year was 220,000, which far exceeds the sales of any other single machine.

THE ONLY MACHINE MADE ON THOROUGHLY SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLES.

Combining Strength, Simplicity & Durability with Lightness of Running.

It is superior to all in the following respects:
1st. Simplicity of construction.
2nd. Ease of management.
3d. Lightness of running.
4th. Non-liability to get out of repair.
5th. Durability—it being made of the finest hardened steel.
6th. Perfection of tension on both upper and lower threads, and the ease with which they are controlled by the operator. It makes a perfect Lock Stitch on all kinds of goods and never breaks the thread.
7th. The strength and regularity of the new feed, which enables it to stitch soft or glazed, light, or heavy work equally well, and to cross heavy seams or fells without the slightest difficulty.

The new improved HEMMER, FELLER, BRAIDER, QUILTER and GUIDE; Also, OILER, BOTTLE OIL, Doz. NEEDLES, BOBBINS, &c.,

go with each Machine free of charge. In addition to these, we will give a Ruffler and an alpaca Hemmer with each machine, making more attachments than are given with any machine in use

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN

JURUBEBA

BLOOD PURIFIER

Is the most powerful cleanser, strengthener and remover of Glandular Obstructions known to Materia Medica.

It is specially adapted to constitutions "worn down" and debilitated by the warm weather of Spring and Summer, when the blood is not in active circulation, consequently gathering impurities from sluggishness and imperfect action of the secretive organs, and is manifested by Tumors, Eruptions, Blotches, Boils, Pustules, Scrofula, &c., &c.

When weary and languid from overwork, and dullness, drowsiness and inertia take place of energy and vigor the system needs a Tonic to build it up and help the Vital Forces to regain their recuperative power.

In the heat of Summer, frequently the Liver and Spleen do not properly perform their functions; the Uterine and Urinary Organs are inactive, producing weakness of the stomach and intestines and a predisposition to billious derangement.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JERUBEBA

is prepared directly from the SOUTH AMERICAN PLANT, and is peculiarly suited to all these difficulties; it will cleanse the VITIATED BLOOD, strengthening the LIFE-GIVING POWERS, and REMOVE ALL OBSTRUCTIONS from IMPAIRED AND ENFEEBLED ORGANS.

It should be freely taken, as Jerubeba is pronounced by medical writers the most efficient PURIFIER, TONIC and DEOBSTRUENT known in the whole range of medicinal plants.

Bellefonte and County.

——Blanks at J. Welch & Co's.

——Does the editor of the Watchman expect to get the nomination to the Senate by another Chambers letter? Now dew tell.

——Messrs. Shortlidge & Co., have a large quantity of the very finest coal of all grades which they offer to the public at the lowest cash prices.

——It is said Meek's prospects for the Senate are looking sick. We recommend the local application of the styptic calloid and the use of faradisation.

——The Watchman "wets down" 23½ quires. 24 sheets in a quire; 24 times 23½ makes 2000. So Meek says, and 1000 has not paid for eleven years.

——"Oh, ma," said a little girl the day Van Amburgh's circus was in town, "I have seen the elephant and he walks backwards and eats with his tail."

——A new society has been formed in town called Gideons Band, which takes in the general information of the town. We failed to learn the name of the chief Gideon.

——People who have been sending for the "queer," or counterfeit money will no doubt be pleased to learn that full lists of names are being made for publication.

——At the depot on Monday evening, an eager looking man jumped off the train and clasped a waiting woman in his arms and exclaimed "Heavens, my wife," said she "mercy my ruffles," which showed what both were thinking of.

——Samuel Aley's shoe stooe at Jacksonville, was broken into on Wednesday last and property stolen to the value of thirty or forty dollars. This is the second visitation Mr. Aley has received within a year. No arrests have yet been made.

——The Morrisdale coal train ran over a cow belonging to Wm. Rainey at Philipsburg, killing the animal and badly wrecking six coal cars. The cow was quite a loss to Mr. Rainey, and the expenses of the collision considerable to the railroad company.

——The finest patch of potatoes we have seen in Bellefonte are owned by Ike Haupt. They yield 20 good sound Republican potatoes to one stalk, and put their Democratic neighbors over the fence entirely in the shade. Thus fortune always favors the good.

——A man who slipped in front of the express office yesterday and sat down so heavily as to start his scalp, explained on rising that he could fall harder than that if he had a mind to, but as his breath smelled strong of local option nobody believed him.

——A Brush Valley man who failed to get a ten cent banana for five cents, wanted to know "whether we are breathing the pure air of freedom, or being strangled with the fetid breath of a hellish despotism?" The store keeper said those were the only bananas he had.

——A Millheim butcher, J. G. Musser by name, tied a heifer in a stable with a rope halter and left her there for a short time, and when he returned the poor heifer was dead. She had twisted the rope in such a manner as to choke herself to death. Moral—be careful how you tie a heifer.

——We once heard of a young merchant who was trying to struggle along in a falsely economical way, who took a class in Sunday School. One day during the progress of the lesson he asked: "What is solitude," and was somewhat disconcerted when a little bright eyed boy of about eight years looked up and said—"the store that don't a vertise."

——H. P. Trcziyulny, of Milesburg, has field of corn which he thinks about as fi e as can be found in Centre county. As a sample of it he showed us 20 stalks averaging 10 feet high and each bearing two or three ears. Trcziyulny [illegible]ather a crocked name, but the possessor is a straight Republican, and lives upon the mountain back of Milesburg among the clouds, fresh air, panthers, and other delightful things, and, he says, amuses himself evenings sitting on his porch and smoking while he spits down into Milesburg.

——Are the people of Centre County to be forever burdened with the exhorbitant and unjust freight tariffs on the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad? Our people complain of heavy taxes and want of prosperity among our manufacturers, and as long as this burdensome and unjust tax is placed upon every business enterprise they will have reason to complain. What justice is there that a large and wealthy corporation like the Bellefonte Car Manufacturing Co. or the Howard Iron Works should be allowed privileges denied the public? We do not claim that they have received more than is due them, but we do claim that these rates that have been granted them should also be granted to every business enterprise in the county. This railroad has been an incubus upon the growth and prosperity of the county long enough and it is time that the management should look to the interest of the people. It is not an oppression to the business men of our county alone, for there is not a farmer or laborer in the county that has not a portion of this unjust tax to pay on every article of food and clothing shipped over their road. Centre County is full of undeveloped wealth, which lies idle because men of moderate means cannot manufacture their wares and ship them to market and compete with Pittsburg and other places along the P. R. R. Great expectations are indulged in, and in a measure will, no doubt, be realized, of the growth and prosperity induced by the establishment of the Car Shops in Bellefonte, but this is only the tardy growth which circumstances have forced over this great obstacle. Give us pro rato rates and Centre County will receive an impetus that a dozen such manufactories cannot give. Farmers you can do something in this matter. Every man in Centre County can add his influence, however small, to break down this oppression, and for encouragement you have the example of the Granges of the West who are making their power felt to the strongest monopolies of the land. Do not look beyond this great wrong to hopes of enterprise and prosperity which can never be attained until this, the root of the evil, be removed.

——We visited last week the iron works of McCoy & Linn, Milesburg, and was shown over the establishment by their gentlemanly and obliging clerk L. T. Eddy. This establishment has been in operation for many years and is one of the largest of the kind in the country. Unlike most of our iron works the ore is not shipped away in the rough state after being coverted into blooms but is refined and manufactured into rods and galvanized spring wire and in this state finds its way to every part of the United States. With the exhorbitant rates of freight it will be seen that Messrs. McCoy & Linn have the decided advantage in this manner, as their metal is reduced to a less weight and bulk and the profits usually divided between two establishments are retained. We regret we are not able at present to give our readers a detailed description of their process for the manufacture of rods and wire but as our visit was a brief one we do not feel qualified to make the attempt. We found a rather interesting guard stationed at the door, being a young bear about a year old, who seemed inclined to receive us with open arms, but having a dislike for that kind of gentry we felt no desire for a more intimate acquaintance, and without arguing the point with him at all concluded to "go round." We shall have more to say of this establishment in a subsequent issue.

——We have from time to time endeavored to urge Republicans to attend the primary meetings in force, as being the best means of securing good men as delegates to conventions, who in turn will nominate good men as candidates to be voted for by the people at the ensuing election. When this is done professional office seekers are lost sight of and the interests of Republicanism promoted. We see by our exchanges that Mr. Henry, one of the candidates for State Treasurer made a personal canvass of Lancaster county where our Republican friends have adopted the Crawford county system by voting direct for the candidates instead of voting for delegates. Hon. R. W. Mackey our present efficient State Treasurer received a majority of the votes cast and of course is the choice of Lancaster county. This is a good example and Republicans will profit by it. Let the Republicans of Centre county make a note of this.

——A young man has recently ceased calling at a certain house at Howard. It appears he went there the other night from a local option meeting, and on her father appearing at the door, he observed. "Hello, old tadpole; where ish the floating gazelle? where ish my love now dreaming?" This seemed indicate to the old gentleman that something was wanted, so he placed his hand sadly on the young man's shoulder, and turning him partly around, stowed a large amount of leather under his coat tail and retired into the house. The young man says "he is an awful on'ry old rooster."

——The Insurance office of Joseph A. Rankin is at his residence opposite the Presbyterian church, Bellefonte, Pa.

——Having 23 year's experience in the insurance business, I am prepared to place my customer's property in good, reliable companies who pay their losses.

JOSEPH A. RANKIN.

——The Watchman has a great deal to say about Grant and Cœserism. We have no doubt that the Watchman's criticisms are just and that Grant favors Cœserism, for see, here is a new proof: President Grant has promised to attend a fat men's clambake. Now on one occasion (according to Shakespeare) Cœser cried out: "Let me have men about me that are fat."

——Our fat and jolly friend, Alexander Knoll of Howard, keeps a first class local option hotel. It is conviently located to the depot, and the table and accommodations are the best to be found in a country hotel. Mr. Knoll is a firm reliable Republican, and is never afraid to let his views be known on every appropriate occasion. We wish him prosperity and happiness.

——We have noticed a marked improvement in the typographical appearance of the Berichter, and under the energetic management of G. W. Foote are pleased to learn it is rapidly gaining favor in Penns valley. We cannot appreciate the crushing arguments on the editorial page, which fact we lament. Democratic Dutch must be something exhilerating. But we cannot enjoy all the good things in this world.

——We had the pleasure riding from the Old Fort to Bellefonte, yesterday, with as jolly a crew as we ever fell in with—Messrs. J. M. Van Ormer, Daniel Hosterman, E. J. Deshler, and George Bowers, Democratic delegates from Haines to the County Convention held in the Court House yesterday. They showed their good sense by subscribing for the REPUBLICAN, and we never lose hopes of a Democrat who is willing once a week to refresh his mind with the pure influence of Republican truths.

——There is living in the town of Rebersburg, a carpet weaver who has reached the good old age of seventy-seven, and we are informed, is as nimble and spry as most young persons of thirty. Her name is Mrs. Mary Hartzel, or aunt Polly, as she is called by her neighbors and friends. She works steadily at the loom and manufactures a first class article. By her own industry she has accumulated considerable property, which is always the sure reward of honest, well directed effort. She is no drone in the busy hive of this world, but is performing her allotted work, in God's vineyard, faithfully and well.

——We understand that Dot Kinsloe's book binder has repeatedly attempted to bind in book form part of the Tuten REPULICAN, and now renounces the job in disgust, avowing that no man could bind their papers so long as the editorials are so confounded "thin."—Watchman.

That's good. But the facts vary from the above, thusly: We have sent no copies of the "Tuten REPUBLICAN" to be bound but have sent two volumes of the Watchman and these are they with which Kinsloe is having so much trouble. We have instructed Kinsloe to spare no expense and if possible these labored effusions shall be placed in book form and handed down to future generations. The book will be entitled "The Follies of a young Politician."

——If there is one word in the English language dearer than all others, it is that of Ma. There is a sweet tenderness about the name of Ma, that the pen fails to express. Wherever we may go, however exalted or depraved the circumstances of life may make us, the influence of that blessed name remains. No line of poetry ever written is dearer to the heart of man than that which asks with powerful significance—

"What is home without a Ma."

Nothing surely can be more desolate, nothing more cold and drear, unless, forsooth, we except the home that is not furnished with A. Schroyer & Son's elegant and cheap furniture. Their store is located on Bishop street, where the best assortment of furniture, picture frames, &c., to be found in Bellefonte, are constantly kept on hand.

——The most enterprising and successful sewing machine agency in this vicinity are the well known firm of Palmer & Wooster. They probably sell more machines than all the other agents in this place put together, and the reasons are, 1st. Because they advertise more than all the rest and do not rely altogether upon their knowledge of the county and the people, and 2d. They sell the very best machine that is made, that we know, having purchased one of their $120 machines. We have tried all kinds, the Wheeler & Wilson, the Florence, the Grover & Baker, the Singer, the Weed, but the palm of superiority we accord to the "light running Elias Howe." There are many people in the county, no doubt, who contemplate purchasing a machine, but among the conflict of agents, all urging their machine as the very best, (for all agents do this), they halt between two opinions. We were troubled in the same way, but having tried so many different ones, all called first class, we feel competent to judge, and our preference is as above stated. We would advise all wanting machines to call and see Palmer & Wooster, before purchasing elsewhere, and our word for it, they will never regret it.

——Prof. Day, the colored orator, and editor of Our National Progress, of Harrisburg, will be present and address the A. M. E. Society at their celebration to be held a Rhoads' grove, to-morrow (Thursday.) In the evening he will deliver an oration at Reynolds' Hall, in honor of the 14th amendment. Prof. Day is one of the finest orators of this country, white or black, and we recommend to all who can to avail themselves of this opportunity. The procession will be formed at the A. M. E. Church at 7.30 A. M., and, headed by the Liberty Cornet Band, will parade the principle streets of our borough before repairing to the grove, where the company will be entertained with music, addresses, refreshments and the usual pleasant sports of such an occasion.—The committee of arrangements feel qualified to assure a pleasant time to all who can make it convenient to be present.

——A week ago last Saturday, a young man about 20 years old, by the name of Dunlap, stole a horse and buggy valued at $350, from the stable of Wm McCulley of this place. The horse was hired to go to Boiling Spring and return at 10 o'clock in the evening. The young man not making his appearance, on Sunday morning Mr. McCulley started in pursuit and after several day's search found his horse at Brookville, Pa, where he had been sold for a watch and $15.—Young Dunlap was arrested in Pittsburg under the alias of Jno. Otto and brought to Bellefonte and lodged at Shaffer's hotel last Sunday evening, where he is now enjoying the pleasure of undisturbed meditation. He made an attempt to escape, at Red Bank, by jumping off the train and succeeded in twisting off his handcuffs, but was re-captured without much difficulty.

——Mr. J. A. Colman the traveling and special agent of the Washington Life Ins. Company of New York is in our Town and has paid to Mr. P. Harris the sum of three thousand dollars for the benefit of Mrs. Dr. Green, late of this place, whose husband was insured for that amount in the "Washington." Persons desiring insurance in a good solid company can do so by calling upon Mr. Coleman or Mr. E. M. Blanchard who is the local agent.

——If that would be lady, for doubtless she considers herself such, who pocketed the tumbler which graced the pump in front of the Curtin House below the Milesburg Depot, after she was done drinking, will return it, or a better one, she will much oblidge the honest workmen who often sipped the cooling draught from its crystaline brim. If however she is disposed to keep it, let her think of what is written in Exodus 20: 15, whenever she sees the glass.

——It is reported that a party of capitalist have discovered an inexhaustible supply of iron ore just above the toll gate on the Bellefonte and Lewistown pike, and some enthusiastic individuals claim to believe that the entire mountain one huge heap of iron. Well, we hope it may turn out so to be. If we cannot make money ourselves we like to see others prosper in that way, it makes more candidates to go for.

——It is remarkable that in this enlightened age, any firm could be so imprudent as to frighten the wits out of a steady sober population by startling their distracted senses with the "Boo-oo-oo-h" of a steam engine. But such is the sad case at Miliheim, and Hartman and Lamy did it. So says the Berichter. They have our heartfelt sympathy.

——We are continually receiving anonimous communications for publication. We have before stated that no communication will receive attention that has not a responsible signature attached, not for publication but as an evidence of good faith. Do not write what will not bear investigation, but if you do, have the courage to put your name to it.

EDITORS OF BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.—I am glad to notice that you name John Irwin, Jr., as a candidate for Senator. Mr. Irwin is well and favorably known throughout the county, and is in every respect one of the strongest candidates that Centre county can produce. His nomination will add strength to our ticket—nominate him and you will have a large vote in WALKER.

——In Central City a most extraordinary freak of nature has recently occured. They have a child some two months old who has no eyes or eyebrows or any appearance of any, all being skined over as smoothly as the cheek or forehead. Where is Barnum?

——The installment of Rev. J. V. R. Hughes as pastor of the Bald Eagle Presbyterian Church will take place at Unionville, on Friday, August 15, services beginning at 2 o'clock, P. M. The public and friends are cordially invited to be present.

——We are requested, by Mr. Yocum, to state that he is not, and has not been a candidate for the Senatorial nomination.

——Go to J. Welch & Co. for blanks of every description. See his advertisment in another column.

——I insure in the "Continental" of New York. Cash capital $10,000,000.

——The charge made in Mrs. Brown's paper of last week, that Mr. Shortlidge "imperiously dictated" to us that we should not publish an obituary notice in the REPUBLICAN because he had a personal spite against the party, is willfully and maliciously false. It is well known in Bellefonte that Brown entertains no good feelings towards Mr Shortlidge who has in time past befriended him with the loan of money, and otherwise, and in return has received only slander and abuse, and because Mr Shortlidge refuses to be further imposed upon, he takes this way to injure his business, and defame his character. We hope no one will heed this vile slander as it is prompted by the worst of motives.

——Frank McClain, Esq. The gentleman whose name heads this article is well known to many citizens of Centre county and it will be gratifiying to them to know that he is now located in Altoona where he is driving a thriving business in the dry good trade. He has recently purchased a large corner lot on which he is erecting a magnificent brick block, which when finished will contain two large store rooms, barber shop, four offices, a residence for himself with an Odd Fellows Hall in the third story. Store rooms in the right location pay in Altoona and we be speak for Frank a large income from his new building. When Bellefonters call on him they always find the latch string out. Success to him.

——Saturday was a lively day among the Democracy. From early morn till late at night "little knots', of Democrats were seen on every street corner. Meek and McQuistion in the West ward were very busy, but for some reason Cal. Bowers was chosen as a delegate and McQuistion was counted off. Bowers selection looks like an Orvis triumph. Bowers being a student of Orvis and Alexander. Reynolps and Meek are set on having Smith of Penn. township nominnated for Treasurer. Shugert having out generaled them two years ago, Weaver having selected the Centre County Bank as his place of deposit to the great discomfort of Reynolds, Reynolds started out to set up Benner township for Smith, but Benner didn't take much stock in Reynolds and instructed delegates for Barnhart. Dobbins is about considered a chance candidate whose friends are beginning to feel that Meek sells him out every time. The last heard of him, was that he was acting as umpire between Meek and Orvis on Saturday night. We hope to be able to give a full account of their doings before we go to press.

——As Rev. U. W. Condit accompained by Mr. Wills were riding to Washington Furnace last Sunday to preach his horse suddenly took firight, became unmanagable, and running, both gentleman were thrown out. Although Mr. Condit was badly bruised he was able to conduct religious services at the Cedar spring school house in the afternoon. Mr. Wills escaped with out injury.

——Levi Garbrick has been energetically canvassing the Bald Eagle valley for a very valuable work by Dr. Dio Lewis entitled Our Digestion or my Jolly Friend's Secret, and has met with deserved success. We are informed that he sold over one hundred copies in Bellefonte alone, and his success has been proportionately good wherever he has been. Mr. Garbrick is an affable gentleman and a good canvasser, and this together with having one of the very best works from one of the very best authors is the secret of his success. We have the work on our table and find it to be full of useful and instructive reading matter. It is dedicated by its author to those of his countrymen who are "all gone in the pit of the stomach, with the kindest of wishes." The author says "For years I have been watching and studying the habits of my countrymen. We are a nation of dyspeptics. I am sure I have come to understand the reasons for it. One of the reasons is want of good digestion, which is almost impossible with out good teeth, The Dr. then advances this theory: sugar acids, such as lemon juice, vinegar, hot or cold food and drinks, saleratus in our food, although these things are bad for the teeth, may all be indulged in with impunity if we will only keep our teeth clean. All there is of this business is simply this, keep your teeth clean and they wont decay."

We wish that every one might read his testimony against alcohol. Here it is: Alcohol is not only an enemy to mental and moral health, but is such a deadly enemy to the body, that no ambitious trainer of a prize-fighter will allow him to touch a teaspoonful of it, even in the form of a pure wine. His own passion for drink may almost consume him, while he would curse the temperance men as a fanatical fool, but when preparing his men for the "ring" he insists upon total abstinence. I happened to be present once when a conversation on this point occurred beween a famous fighter and his trainer. The bully suggested that a spoonful of whisky would certainly do no harm, "Well," said Mac., "go ahead, down with your whisky, but you can just get another trainer, you don't catch me disgracing myself, you know John that I believe in whisky as much as any man, I just lay right to it, and when you get through with the thing, you can have a regular blow out; but while we are fixing for the mill, not one drop of the stuff goes down your guzzle my boy, You see, John, I'll drink a double dose every other glass for you. But you can't toddy your whistle till after the twenty-third."

What is true of prize-fighters is true of all classes of men fitting themselves for great physical exertions. Go and ask those young fellows who are training for a hundred mile walk, or for an international boat race: it is the same story over again, not one drop of any alcoholic stimulus. I have a score of times talked with men interested in these great matches, prize-fights, boat-races, pedestrian struggles, etc.,—and have frequently wished that some intelligent friends of mine who think whisky healthful could hear their statements and explanations. I asked the most remarkable pedestrian that we have seen in America, when he was trying to walk a hundred miles in twenty-two hours, why he did not take a little stimulus during the last few miles; at length there were forty minutes left and five miles to go, it was pretty evident that he would fail, I am ashamed to say that I really worked myself into a fever of interest in his success. He came out into the dressing room for one minute, and I exclaimed, "you will fail; nothing can save you." He was pale, trembling and ready to faint, and I honestly thought that in such an emergency a small glass of spirits might revive and help him through.

He replied doubling his fists with a desperate energy, "I shall not fail; but if I swallow a spoonful of whisky I am lost."

Alcohol is a poison to prize-fighters, to boat-racers, to pedestrians, to students, to young and to old, to men, women and children, to sailors in the Arctic regions, to soldiers in India, to every human being under every possible circumstance.

Dear readers is not Dio about right?

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—We desire to bring forward the name Hon. John Irwin, Jr., for the office of State Senator. He is a man of unflinching integrity and acknowledged ability and if nominated would be sure to be elected. Let our Republicans turn in and, by nominating Mr. Irwin, reflect credit on the party by giving him the highest office within our gift at the coming election. HOWARD.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—As you are announcing the names of a number of persons to be brought before the Republican County Convention for office,—please permit me to name the Hon. A. R. Barlow of Worth township as a candidate for Legislator. Mr. Barlow having served two years is well known as an honest upright man, and consistant Republican and will make a strong candidate. HALF MOON.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—Among the several officers to be elected at the ensuing election, there is none of more importance than that of Jury Commissioner. The Republicans should have a candidate who is well acquainted throughout the county. A man who is not afraid to do his duty, a man who is capable of selecting the very best men in the county for Jurors, as such I feel that John S. Foster, of Harris township can be highly recomended. BOALSBURG.

MESSRS. TUTENS.—Please announce the name of Levi A. Miller as a suitable person to fill the office of assemblyman for the next year. Mr. Miller is a live, working republican, was a brave soldier in the late war, and if nominated will be more likely to carry the county against democratic rule and corruption than any other man. B.

MESSRS EDITORS.—As the Republicans of Centre county will soon be called on to nominate candidates to fill the several offices, allow me to name Dr. Miller Stewart of Burnside township, as a man eminently qualified to represent the people in the general assembly. Dr. Stewart is a fine scholar and a gentleman in every sence of the word who if nominated will be a power within himself against the sham democracy. SNOW SHOE.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—Allow me, through the columns of your valuable paper, to present the name of Wm. Stover, of Aaronsburg, Haines twp., for the office of Commissioner. He is an upright, honest man and firm Republican, and will influence a strong vote in the county. MILLHEIM.

As we go to press we are authorized to announce the name of Capt. R. B. Barger as a candidate for the Legislature subject to the Republican nomination.

MARRIED.

In Milesburgh, August 6th, 1873, by Rev. W. M. Meminger, at the M. E. parsonage, Ed. J. Frysinger, of Lewistown, to Miss Sarah E. Faxon, of Milesburgh.
